EUROPE AFTER 1918: POLAND, THE BALTIC COUNTRIES, AND THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 1-2, 2019
WHITNEY HUMANITIES CENTER, RM 208
53 WALL ST, NEW HAVEN

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1

Session 1. 3:00-5:00
Andres Kasekamp, University of Toronto
Lives of the Hunted: The Foreign Relations of the Baltic States in the Interwar Era
Halina Parafianowicz, University of Białystok
Woodrow Wilson and Poland. His Legend and American Myth in the Interwar Period

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2

Session 2. 10:00-11:30
Jacek Partyka, University of Białystok
A Transatlantic Community of “Annexed People”: The Jews of Białystok and their New York City Diaspora, 1918-1939

Egidijus Balandis (Vytautas Magnus University)
To Foster the Love of One’s Country...”: Lithuanian-American Athletic Clubs, 1918-1940

Session 3. 11:45-1:15
Tomasz Pudłocki, Jagellonian University
Polish PR in the US, 1918-1939 – A Few Remarks

Charles Perrin, Kennesaw State University
The Travelling Exhibit Over the Ocean: A Century of Friendship between Lithuania and the United States

Session 4. 2:30-4:00
Eriks Jekabsons, University of Latvia
US Views on the Independence of the Baltic States, 1918-1922: The Case of Latvia

Olavi Arens, Georgia Southern University
Self-Determination or the Unity of Russia: An Indeterminate US Policy on Estonia, 1918-1922

Break 4:00-4:15
General discussion 4:15-5:15